

Rudy Zuiderveld and
Anne Marie Stahel
Sunday, May 7th at 4pm

Dr. Rudolf Zuiderveld is a Professor Emeritus of Music at Illinois College and Organist for the First Presbyterian Church in Springfield, IL. Zuiderveld is a renowned organist who shares the glory of music through concerts and lectures across the country and occasionally in his native Netherlands.

Anne Marie Stahel has toured widely in Europe as a flautist in addition to teaching at the Conservatory of Music in Lucerne, Switzerland. Stahel is director of liturgical music, organist and choir director for Our Savior Catholic Church in Jacksonville.

This season we are celebrating Jacksonville's finest musicians with a series of Sunday afternoon concerts in a variety of musical styles.

All Concerts Are Free and Open to the Public

Jacksonville
Public Library
201 West College Ave.
Jacksonville, IL 62650

217-243-5435

www.jaxpl.org

JACKSONVILLE
PUBLIC LIBRARY

Jacksonville
Public Library

Music
Under the Dome

2016-2017

Robert Sampson
Sunday, Oct. 9th at 4pm

Jacksonville's own Robert Sampson is a talented Blues musician and a six-time winner of the Illinois Central Blues Club's Blues Challenge. Robert has competed in the International Blues Challenge in Memphis, Tennessee on several occasions and has been a finalist three times. He tours nationally, performing original compositions as well as popular favorites.

Mike Anderson
Sunday, Dec. 18th at 4pm

Jacksonville's Mike Anderson is one of the most versatile folk performers you can find.

Anderson plays banjo, guitar, jaw harp, nose flute, and more. He is best known for being an outstanding dulcimer player, one of the best in the Midwest.

Illinois College Women's Chorale and Illinois College Chamber Singers
Sunday, March 5th at 4pm

The Women's Chorale is an advanced group of singers who perform music of all eras. The Chamber Singers are an elite group of highly skilled singers with a focus on vocal excellence. Both groups perform widely for campus and community events and are sought after for performances near and far.

Ken Bradbury
Sunday, March 26th at 4pm

For over forty years, local favorite Ken Bradbury has been performing across the Midwest landscape, bringing the sounds of America's rich cultural heritage to life. From schoolhouses to international conventions, Ken's piano stylings have delighted audiences for decades.

Anna and Bethany Ferraro
Sunday, April 23rd at 4pm

Anna and Bethany Ferraro are Jacksonville natives who own and operate Ferraro Music Studio. Anna is a classically trained pianist and Bethany a classically trained violinist. Together they will perform an engaging program of classical music.